A Guide to the HPAS Examination by HPPSC

The Himachal Pradesh Administrative Services (HPAS) examination, conducted annually by the Himachal Pradesh Public Service Commission (HPPSC), stands as one of the most prestigious and coveted civil services exams in India.

The HPAS examination comprises three successive stages: Preliminary Examination, Main Examination, and Interview/Personality Test. The Preliminary Examination involves two objective-type papers – Paper-I (General Studies) and Paper-II (Aptitude Test). It serves as the initial screening process for the Main Examination, where candidates tackle a series of subjective papers, including English, Hindi, General Studies-I, General Studies-II, General Studies-III, and an optional subject of their choice. The final stage is the Interview/Personality Test, evaluating candidates' overall personality, communication skills, and suitability for administrative services.

HPAS officers hold pivotal roles in the formulation and execution of government policies and programs, contributing significantly to the development and welfare of Himachal Pradesh and its citizens. Their duties span an array of administrative responsibilities, from revenue collection and law enforcement to education and healthcare, offering an intellectually stimulating and professionally fulfilling career
